Re: Carjim, LLC, Licensee of Stations KTHE-AM (Facility ID number 33664) and Station KDNO (Facility ID number 88672) Thermopolis, Wyoming

Dear Madam Secretary:

This letter is submitted on behalf of Carjim, LLC, licensee of standard FM broadcast stations KTHE-AM and KDNO-FM, Thermopolis, Wyoming, and requests Special Temporary Authority ("STA") pursuant to section 73.1635 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations, 47 C.F.R 73.1635, for the stations to go silent, for a time not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days. The licensee makes this request for STA because the stations are having financial difficulty and are currently in litigation with Central Bank and Trust, Riverton, Wyoming, which is seeking judicial foreclosure based on alleged perfected security interest in the stations' equipment, contractual rights, and other similar assets, but not the stations' licenses. The licensee expects to resolve the litigation with the Central Bank & Trust within the time period requested for silence of the stations.

Included with this letter is FCC Form 159, which transmits two fee payments of $175 each for this request to the commission's fee contractor, U.S. Bank, St. Louis, MO. Also included is a certification pursuant the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988 signed by an officer of the licensee or the licensee.

Should the commissioner have any questions concerning this request for STA, kindly contact the undersigned as counsel for the licensee.

Very truly yours,

George L. Arnold
Attorney for Licensee
